

10 KRONEN – RAKÚSKO - PAMÄTNÁ EMISIA 1910

Tlač známky a jej poštové použitie

Text describing the historical context and the significance of the 10 Kronen commemorative stamp issued in 1910, marking the centenary of the Austro-Hungarian Empire.

Text describing the technical aspects of the stamp's production, including the printing process and the use of perforations.

Text discussing the postal usage of the stamp, including its cancellation and the specific markings used for identification.

Text providing details about the stamp's value, its place in the philatelic market, and its historical importance.

Text providing further information about the stamp's production, including the number of sheets and the specific printing locations.

Text discussing the stamp's reception, its popularity among collectors, and its role in the postal system of the time.